Each Zodiac Sun Sign horoscope is divided into four parts by birth date. This will give greater accuracy to the monthly forecasts. All you need to know is the date you were born and look up the associated forecast each month.

Aries

Born March 21-28:

All Aries Sun people are in for challenging times for the next few months as the normally robust energy you have is going to be slowed down or blocked in some form or another. For you, this will likely be in the area of work/career this month as past decisions may come back to haunt you, or the boss/authorities will be on your case. You'll have to make some serious adjustments.

Born March 29 – April 4:

All Aries Sun people are in for challenging times for the next few months as the normally robust energy you have is going to be slowed down or blocked in some form or another. You could be hit with a loss in your business or from a court ruling that will subsequently stress family/home life – it will be hard to control yourself emotionally at times, so you've been forewarned!

Born April 5-12:

All Aries Sun people are in for challenging times for the next few months as the normally robust energy you have is going to be slowed down or blocked in some form or another. You are blessed with the ability to see the deeper meaning of your struggles and can gain some inner understanding that will unblock some of this stalled energy and lead to some possible financial opportunities and self-reassurance. Bugged down communications start to move forward again.

Born April 13-19:

All Aries Sun people are in for challenging times for the next few months as the normally robust energy you have is going to be slowed down or blocked in some form or another. You are also blessed with the ability to see the deeper meaning of your struggles and can gain some inner understanding that will unblock some of this stalled energy. Communication problems at work, or with partners or courts possible from Oct 24 – Nov 11.

Taurus

Born April 20-27:

For all Taurus Sun people there will be a sweet return to the energy that you are most comfortable with after Nov 9th as social times begin to increase, the holiday season with all its finery looms largely and enticingly, relationships are amicable, and art or decorative projects take precedence. Oct 30/31 will be a time you will be in the spotlight somehow – perhaps you should host a Halloween party! Communication channels open up after Nov 12th, but it could be combative at times.

Born April 28 – May 4:

For all Taurus Sun people there will be a sweet return to the energy that you are most comfortable with after Nov 9th as social times begin to increase, the holiday season with all its finery looms largely and enticingly, relationships are amicable, and art or decorative projects take precedence. Opportunities to activate communications/socializing/projects with siblings/neighbors/local people exist this month. Social activities accelerate after Nov 16th. A balanced time for you.
